President Speaks

Continuing the June theme, The Weather! Love it or hate it and brag about its changing character, but enough is enough. This has been one of the most unusual springs-going-into-summer that I have seen in 20 years living in eastern Idaho. It is not so much that I am against the weather, just the cycle we have been on. We have had ok-to-good weekdays but the weekends have really been up in the air. I would like that to change. Give us good weekends and so-so weekdays. Because then we would be better able to enjoy club activities. Rain, bring it on because we need the water due to a poor snow pack. Wind the same, during the weekdays but calm weekends. I know I sound like a curmudgeon, but current weather patterns have affected club activities. And it is club activities that have been the glue for 50 years.

So be safe this summer and remember that there is no meeting in July and the summer picnic is August 4.

Now with all that said, I invite club members to participate in the newsletter by submitting a club-oriented paragraph for the President Speaks space. I am sure that club members have some interesting things to say. Just do so by the 10th of the month.

Sam Pole

July 10, 2010, Day Hike / Spring Creek

Approximately 7 miles roundtrip. This is a steady uphill moderate hike, through what should be wonderful wild flowers, to a spectacular overview of Darby Canyon and the Wind Cave hanging valley. There are also views east into the heart of the Tetons. The hike follows and old jeep trail which is now a motorcycle and 4-wheeler route. Contact Sam Pole at 523-4970 prior to the trip. Bring the usual, but especially a jacket for wind and possible rain showers. Meet at the Ammon Wal-Mart out in front of the garden center at 7:30 am.

July 23-24-25, 2010 Multi-day Backpack / Darby Canyon-Wind Cave

This is a one or two night backpack trip, first of the season. We will leave Friday at 1 pm, hike up into the Wind Cave area, make camp and look over the wind cave. Saturday will partly be the same with an opportunity to hike up Fossil Mountain at the head of the valley. Distance to camp is approximately 2.7 miles with mostly moderate hiking. Fossil Mountain will be a day hike from camp of about 4 miles roundtrip. Depending on time one can hike out Saturday evening or stay another night and hike out Sunday. Contact Sam Pole prior to the trip at 523-4970. Meet at the Ammon Wal-Mart out in front of the garden center at 1 pm.

Climbing

For information on club climbing trips contact Kevin Coble at 201-1840. Otherwise to find out about climbing locations or impromptu weekend trips you will need to subscribe to the IAC climbing mailing list by visiting:

2010 Wednesday Night Climbing Schedule:

July 7	Pocatello
July 14	Heise
July 21	Blackfoot
July 28	Pocatello
Aug. 4	Paramount
Aug. 11	Heise
Aug. 18	Pocatello
Aug. 25	Paramount
Sep. 1	Blackfoot

On Wednesday night I (Kevin Coble, and anyone who wants to help) will head out early to set ropes at the specified location at about 4:30 p.m.

The rest of the group usually leaves at 5:45 from the north side McDonalds parking lot (if climbing at Ririe, Heise, or Paramount), or the climbing gym (if climbing at Blackfoot or Pocatello). If anyone can't make the meeting times and needs directions to get to the climbing location on their own, give me a call and I'll be happy to provide them.

(Tentative) July 3rd-4th - Mt. Shasta - Avalanche Gulch Route. Mt. Shasta is a 14162 footer on the border between California and Oregon. The Avalanche Gulch route is the easiest route up the mountain, but still requires 2 days for most, because of an almost 8000 ft. elevation gain from the parking lot. Snow climbing experience required. Possibility of sport climbing in California afterwards (Yosemite, Tuolumne meadows, etc.)
