

Tuesday January 27, 2009

I.F. wins home tourney

POST REGISTER

Behind a complete team effort, the Idaho Falls Eagles pee wee hockey team won its home tournament this past weekend at Tautphaus Park.

The Eagles won the championship game Sunday, topping Ogden, Utah, 3-2.

In pool play, the Eagles beat Jackson, Wyo., 6-1. They also beat Davis County, Utah, 11-0 and the Boise Hawks 12-1.

Courtesy photo - The Idaho Falls Eagles pee wee hockey team proudly displays its first-place trophy Sunday at Tautphaus Park.

The championship game was a wild affair.

The Eagles started slowly, falling behind 1-0. Ogden almost put the game out of reach on a penalty shot, but goalie Ian Schoenrock made a huge save to keep it 1-0.

The save sparked the Eagles, who tied the game on a goal by Jacob Dogal. The Eagles took the lead when Jake Thornberry scored on a penalty shot. Trevor Hott extended the lead to 3-1.

The Eagles held on to win

3-2 behind Schoenrock's goaltending and the stout defense of Hott, Dogal, Andrew Callin, Trent Marvin and Drew Zagula.

Thornberry led the team in goals over the weekend with seven. Parker Stenersen and Austin Carpenter each had four.

Other goal scorers were Owen Woodward (3), Wilson Dobson (2), Alex Peterson (2), Quinton Heyrand (2), Marcus Armstrong (2), Hott (2), Dogal (2), Brennan Witt (2) and Marvin (1).

The leaders in assists were Stenersen, Peterson and Armstrong with five apiece.

Other players with assists were Carpenter (3), Heyrand (3), Woodward (2), Thornberry (2), Witt (2), Callin (2), Dogal (2), Dobson (2) and Hott (1).

Goalie Schoenrock had another great weekend, posting one shutout and a save percentage of 90.9 percent. His goals against average was .962.

The Eagles are 15-2.

Idaho Falls B pee wees go 2-2 in tournament

Idaho Falls' B pee wee hockey team went 2-2 at its home tournament this past weekend at Tautphaus Park.

The Eagles ended the weekend with a thrilling sudden-death shootout win.

Cheyenne Garcia and Trent Marvin sealed the win over Jackson, Wyo., with shootout goals.

Jade Rencher scored four goals during the tournament. Conner Jensen and Daniel Alvarez also scored goals over the weekend. Rencher and Jensen added assists.

Additional players on the team include Stephen Schoonen, Jacob King, Chris Shurtliff, Jules Clemens and goalie Kasey Renfro, who had 85 saves on the weekend.