

Monday February 16, 2009

Eagles to play for tourney title today

POST REGISTER

At Colorado Springs, Colo., the Idaho Falls Eagles U18 midget hockey team shut out Fountain View, Colo., 6-0 on Sunday to earn a spot in the Pikes Peak President's Day Tournament championship.

Idaho Falls spread out the scoring Sunday. Josh Forbush scored the first goal of the game off an assist from Devin Crighton. Devin Davis, Ryan Henderson, Morgan Cole and Logan Winterholler also scored goals before Josh Moon sealed it with a score with 1.8 seconds remaining.

Ben Claver and Dylan Sherick each had two assists in the game. Jake Belnap, Forbush, Cole and Moon also contributed assists.

The Eagles outshot Fountain View 44-11 and didn't have any penalties in the game. Goalie Austin Mooso was credited with the 11 saves.

Idaho Falls will face the South Lake (Texas) Dragons at 1 p.m. today at the Air Force Academy Cadet Ice Arena for the championship. Idaho Falls fell to South Lake 7-4 on Saturday.