

Thursday December 11, 2008

I.F. opens hockey season with win over Skyline

The Idaho Falls High School boys hockey team opened the season with a 6-2 win over Skyline on Wednesday at Tautphaus Park.

The Grizzlies took a 2-0 lead in the first period, but the Tigers took charge with four unanswered goals in the second. I.F. Added two goals in the third period for the final margin.

Logan Winterholler led the Tigers with two goals while Derek Starkel had a goal and two assists, Josh Moon chipped in a goal and an assist and Larsen Brandstetter and Zeke Cole also had a goal. Matt Thomas, Riley Barr and Travis Hackett picked up an assist each and Austin Mooso made 25 saves.

Zack Blank had a goal and an assist to lead the Grizzlies, Cole Braase had two assists, Dylan Ridgeway scored a goal and Derek Kaasa chipped in an assist. Alex Musselman stopped 31 shots for Skyline.

Skyline takes on Bonneville/Hillcrest on Tuesday while the Tigers are off.