

Monday December 31, 2007

I.F. Eagles second in Missoula

POST REGISTER

---

At Missoula, Mont., Havre (Mont.) scored two power-play goals and skated to a 4-2 win over the Idaho Falls Eagles in the championship game of the Missoula Holiday Classic midget hockey tournament Sunday.

The game was tied at 2 before Havre tallied the final two goals of the game, one on a power play and the other the result of a quirky bounce of the puck.

Jake Johnson had a goal and an assist and Zeke Cole added a goal for Idaho Falls, which placed second in a tournament for the third time this season.

The Eagles play host to their own tournament, the Tin Can Classic, Jan. 12-14 at Tautphaus Park.